

...IN THE SOCIAL REALM....

I'm ignorant, I own, my dear:
"Ich liebe dich," I greatly fear,
Is all the German that I know—
And when you ask me "Parlez-vous?" I search my French books through and through But only find "Je t'aime." And so I'll tell the truth in English plain:
To me all tongues sing one refrain,
"I love you!" as you've guessed, I trow—
And in the magic of your kiss,
My ignorance would turn to bliss, Metropolitan.

A song which was a great favorite about the year 1850, written by Robert Glen, and arranged by J. H. Hewitt, is given here:

"Tis home where'er the heart is,
Where'er its living treasures dwell,
In cabin, or in princely hall,
In forest haunt of hermit's cell, Tis bright where'er the heart is,
Its fairy spells have power to bring Fruit, fountains to the wilderness,
And to the desert vernal spring.

"Tis free where'er the heart is,
Nor ranking chain nor dungeon dim,
Can check the mind's aspirings,
The bounding spirit's pealing hymn.
The heart gives life its beauty,
Its warmth, its radiance and its power,
Is sunlight to its rippling streamlet,
And soft dew to its drooping flower."

The Finals in Virginia.

"The Finals," as they are called in Virginia, are society matters of moment that will engage the attention of young society girls in Virginia during the closing weeks in June.

Many of the Richmond debutantes of the past winter and pretty girls from all over the State will be the belles at the furnaces which will crown the closing festivities of the University of Virginia, and of those at the Virginia Military Institute, Lexington, Va., at Washington and Lee University and at other Virginia institutions of note.

As a young lady is invited to participate in these gayeties, for her to accept the invitation and achieve social distinction in their passing adds a crowning leaf to last winter's belle-ship and gives her a prestige which is a passport for future triumphs and future conquests.

Snow—Anderson.

Mrs. J. Burleigh Anderson, of Manchester, Va., announces the engagement of her daughter, Marion Mae, to Mr.
Charles E. Snow, of Richmond.
The wedding will be celebrated on the Episcopal Church, Manchester, at 7 o'clock.

Weddings of the Week.

Among the prominent weddings of this week will be that of Miss Charlotte Claybrook and Dr. Hunter Holmes Mc-Guire, of Winchester, June 10th, in Centenary Methodist Episcopal Church, at 3 Third Street.

Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Noel, will be married to Mr. Elphalet Andrews Lloyd, of New York, Thursday, June 10th, in Centenary Methodist Episcopal Church.

The wedding of Miss Nannie Will Gould-ing to Mr. W. Ernest Turner will take place at noon of Wednesday, June 16th, in the home of Miss B. F. Goulding, No.
12 West Clay Street.

In the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Scott, of "Monmouth," Buckingham county, on June 15th at noon, Miss Anna London Scott and Dr. Richard L. Shanklin, of Gay, Va., will be wedded, the celebration to be very quiet on account of recent bereavement in the family of Miss Scott.

In Honor of Miss Becker.

Miss Lily Madeline Becker, who has just graduated from the Woman's College with high honors and the M. A. degree, was given as a graduating present a lovely party last evening by Mr. P.
H. Estes, this city. Mr. Estes' guests were the school friends of Miss Becker, many having graduated in the class of '04. The happy party left Miss Becker's home, No. 241 Grove Avenue, at 6 o'clock on Miss Helen Gould's car, "The Virginia," which bore them to Petersburg and back. The chaperones were Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Becker, Mrs. J. O.
Martin and Mrs. Milton Cayce. Those composing the merry party were: Miss Lily Madeline Becker, Miss Maude
Hutchinson, Starks, Miss Rosa Virginia
Smith, Miss Bessie Darden, Miss Mamie Guthrie, Miss Evelyn MacKreth, Miss Rosa Andrew Brown, Madge Bowie served on the car, and the happy party reached home shortly before midnight, after having spent a most enjoyable evening.

Mothers' Club.

The Mothers' Club of the Valentine Kindergarten held its final meeting of the season on Thursday afternoon at the club room. The meeting was devoted to pleasure only and was largely attended by the members and their friends.
Miss Christine, a trained nurse of much prominence and efficiency, addressed the club on the subject of "Emergencies," imparting much valuable information to the mothers present. She was listened to very attentively, and at the end of

MISS JONNA LAWS.

This young lady of Nashville, Tenn., is a fair sponsor to the Confederate reunion.
She was in Richmond last winter as the guest of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Davis, of Tennessee, who have removed to Richmond and will make their home here. Miss Laws will have as her guest during the reunion, Miss Mildred Woodward, of this city, who will be one of her maids of honor. Miss Sarah Robertson, the daughter of Mrs. W. A. Davis, being absent.

her talk was accorded a rising vote of thanks.

Mrs. H. L. Ullman, the president, with a few appropriate remarks, then presented to each of the teachers of the Valentine Kindergarten, Misses Annie
B. Kirk, Alice Y. Moncure and Ellen T.
Rider, a beautiful token of affection from the mothers of the club. She told how they had endeared themselves to the mothers, and voiced the sentiment of every member when she spoke of the pleasure the club took in presenting these tokens of love.

Miss Kirk responded in quite a happy manner, and was followed by Misses Rider and Moncure.
"Dainty refreshments were served by Miss Blanche Goodie, and after a little social chatter, the meeting came to a happy ending with many assurances for a bright future in the coming season."

Changed Date of Friday Frolic.
Owing to the inclemency of the weather
"In the Service of the King," Circle No. 2, King's Daughters, changed the date of their "Friday Frolic" from June 13th to June 15th. Their altered cards read as follows:

"Come to the Monday Merry-Making,

5:30, at their studio, before a pleased and appreciative audience.

It was a great success, and every number of the programme was rendered with skill and finish professional in character.

The rooms were tastefully decorated with laurels and daisies. In the absence of Mrs. B. M. Gwathmey, incident to the death of her cousin, a slight change in the programme was necessitated. The pleasure of the occasion was greatly enhanced by the talented violinist, Mr.
John Reinhardt, who played "Simple

Anderson assisted Miss Coker and Miss Turner in receiving their guests.

most admired in Charlottesville, Va. She is a great-niece of the celebrated Confederate General, A. P. Hill, and a great-niece also of General John M. Jones, who was killed while leading his division in the battle of the Wilderness. Through her mother, Miss Alice Russell, of Virginia, Miss Hill is related to the Spotswoods, Ran-

Everything That's New In Millinery!

In our Millinery Sections New Features are crowding one upon the other; always something new—always something interesting—so interesting in fact that its a source of pleasure to tell of them.

In particular there's the "JUNE DALE" and the "ROSE".
The accompanying illustration on the right represents the former, while on the left is shown a type of the latter; they are in great demand, for they are beautiful.

Others of equal note are the "LINGERIE HATS" built entirely of dainty embroidery and ribbon—very effective—yet of the elegant-simplicity-type; signifying the latest summer ideas.

Among the Hats especially featured for TOURISTS and those we term the "SEMI-DRESS" Hats, fashion approves about equally the "Deering" and the "Lindsay"—they're extreme types of the sailor. The crown of the "Deering" is very large, comes nearly to the brim, the entire hat is of stitched silk—the side crown of white kid, two gilt buckles finish the extremely stylish effect.

The "Lindsay" is also of silk, has rolling brim and elongated crown—a touch of jauntness is added with coque pompons & an otherwise severely plain effect. They come in white and colors.

THE JAP SILK WAISTS.

Dame fashion may be fickle, but she remains loyal to Jap. SILK—whether its the one that's strictly tailor-made, with broad tucks on front, back and sleeves —or the very dressy one, with the front composed of clusters of pin tucks and cream lace—we just can't get enough of them—they're full of values, and we are selling them at $2.98, and THAT, IN A MEASURE, OF COURSE, AC-COUNTS FOR THEIR DEMAND.

Another splendid value is a TAILOR-MADE WAIST of good quality black Dramatic Entertainment.

A most interesting and highly dramatic entertainment was given by some very young members of West End society Thursday evening last.

The object of the entertainment was to raise money for the sea mission and four and a half dollars was cleared to the great joy of those interested, who were substantially assisted through the generosity of Mr. Strauss.

The very attractive programme for the evening included the numbers herewith given:

1. "Flower Song".....Miss Mary Grigg
2. Recitation.....Master Lewis Strauss
3. Tableau—"Columbus Before Queen Isabella."
4. "Hiawatha".....Miss Mary Grigg
5. "Hiawatha" (Recitation).....
6. Recitation—"The Old-Fashioned (Girl)".....Miss Mary Brown
7. Recitation—"Sleeping Beauty".....
8. Tableau—"Sleeping Beauty".....
9. Dialogue.....Louis and Malcolm Strauss 10. "Entertaining Her Sister's Beau."
11. "The Violets" (Song).....
12. "Cupid".....Miss Mary Grigg
13. "Cupid".....Miss Annette Thiermann
14. The Colored Wedding.
15. Magic Lantern Pictures.

Especially worthy of mention was the recitation entitled "Old-Fashioned Girl," by Miss Mary Brown; the tableau
"Sleeping Beauty," by Miss Lucille Nelson, and a song "The Violets," by Miss Mary Grigg.

The programme was arranged by Mr.
Mitchell Brown and Mr. Willie Grigg.

Piano Recital.

The closing recital for the season of 1903 and 1904 was given Friday afternoon by the pupils of Miss Mary Willie Smoot. The parents and friends of the pupils were charmingly entertained by the young musicians, whose improvement in technique, phrasing and expression excited much favorable comment.

The class in limited, Miss Smoot's professional duties as organist not admitting of time for a large class. Those who played selections from Nevin, Engelmann, Heller, Bohm, Goerdels, Leifsch, Cho-pelin, Mozart and Liszt were: Misses Elizabeth Winn, Ida Louise Smoot, Mildred Lewis, Robert Phillips, Lottie Mc-Elroy, Allen Lewis, Margaret Harman, Rose Harman and Virginia Chesterman.
At the close of the programme Mr.
Samuel Phillips sang "The Gypsy Love Song" and "My Own Sweetheart" with delightful expression. Mr. Phillips is a vocal pupil of R. C. Tappan, and has been doing fine work for the past year.
He gives promise of being an excellent tenor when his voice is matured.

Closing Exercises.

The closing exercises of the higher department of Miss Robinson's school took place on Monday evening.

The rooms of the school were beautifully decorated in white and green, which formed a picturesque background for bright and happy faces.

The honors were delivered by Rev.
J. H. Dickenson, after which the girls gave much pleasure by their happy interpretation of "Songs of Seven" and "Six Cups of Chocolate."

Recitations and a beautiful lily drill were given by Miss Pettit's class in expression. French recitations by Miss Guillaume's class testified to the skill and efficiency of her work during the past season.

Miss May P. Davis, assisted by Miss Gravatt, has had charge of this department, and the work done has been most satisfying to both patrons and teachers.
The girls receiving honors were—Misses Chamberlaine, Lucy Beveridge, Sarah Maude, Adam, Lucy Beveridge, Corinne
Dickinson, Jellis
Scott, Lizzie Durrette, Mabel O'Ferrall, Lindsay Powers, Lucy Wade, Elizabeth Wingo, Phoebe and Lucille Cullingsworth, Bessie McGilvray, Florence Lacy, Julia

Huff, Sophie and Helen Galeski and Netta Pultz.

Japanese Lawn Fete.

The Japanese lawn fete given for the benefit of the Sheltering Arms Hospital Thursday evening at Twenty-seventh and Broad Streets, under the direction of Mrs.
Alice Moore Franklin and Mrs. Dudley Edwards, was a very pretty affair and a great success.

One of the decided attractions of the evening was an Eastern pianist, Madam Liao Yang, whose skill in consulting the future was consulted by many present.

Mrs. New was chairman of the refresh-

Mrs. B. F. Howard, Mrs. J. L. Tallaferra, Mrs. St. Julian Oppenheimer and Miss Mamie Williams.

Mrs. Jennie Yeamans, Richmond's popuulty of the Byron W. King's Summer ic Culture.

Mrs. Yeamans will also fill numerous professional engagements at Erie, Corry and other Pennsylvania cities. The commencement of her Richmond School of Expression will be held at Fergusson's

La France roses. Thelma was in a lovely creation of white tulle de chine, trimmed in point lace. The flowers were Bride roses. The ceremony was impres-sively performed by the Rev. Ritchie Ware.

The bridal gifts were very handsome and numerous. Mr. and Mrs. Sturtevant left soon after their marriage for their new home, in St. Charles, Mo. They will stop in St. Louis for two weeks to visit the World's Fair.

Mrs. India C. Hart has issued invitations to the marriage of her daughter, Louise Byron Hart, to Mr. Arthur Sturtevant Taylor.

The ceremony will be performed at West Baptist Church, Wednesday evening, June 23d, at 8 o'clock.

Miss Hart is originally from Georgetown, but has made her home in Richmond for some years. She is a charming, young lady, refined, cultivated, well-known and extremely popular.

Mr. Taylor is a member of The Time Dispatch staff, and is held in the highest esteem, both as a fine newspaper writer and a courteous, clever gentleman.
He began his journalistic career in Lynnburg, his native town, and has since occupied positions of trust in Staunton, Danville and Norfolk, as well as Richmond.

fax Beach, the daughter of Mrs. M. E.
Beach and the late Samuel T. Beach, for many years a prominent Richmond educator, will take place in this city June 29th.

Sturtevant—Keith.

On June 6th a very pretty wedding was celebrated at River View, Dunsmuir, Va., the home of the bride, when Dr.
Bernhart Kurt Sturtevant led to the altar Miss Marian Frances Keith, the daughter of the late Captain Edward William

The parlors were beautifully decorated in ferns and cut flowers. The color scheme in red and green was well car-
